Case No.: 17 Misc. 0175

RESTRAINING NOTICE

TO: Delaware Trust Company
1180 Avenue of the Americas, Suite 210
New York, New York 10036

In the above-entitled action pending in United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Court"), between plaintiff COMMISSIONS IMPORT EXPORT S.A. ("Plaintiff" or the "Judgment Creditor"), and defendants THE REPUBLIC OF THE CONGO (the "Judgment Debtor") and Caisse Congolaise D'Amortissement, being all of the parties to the action, a Judgment was registered on May 26, 2017, in favor of Plaintiff and against the Judgment Debtor, whose last known address is Republic of the Congo, Ministere des Affaires Etrangeres, Blvd. Alfred Raoul, BP 2070, Brazzaville, Republic of the Congo.

A copy of the Judgment is attached. The amount of $190,860,921.50 plus interest at the rate of $1,721.50 per day remains due and owing to the Judgment Creditor.

It appears that you owe a debt to the Judgment Debtor or are in possession or in custody of property in which the Judgment Debtor has an interest, including but not limited to property of the Judgment Debtor held in connection with your role as successor Trustee and/or successor Paying Agent under the Trust Indenture dated as of November 15, 2007 between The Republic of Congo as Issuer and HSBC Bank USA, N.A. as Trustee with respect to Republic of Congo Fixed Annual Interest Rate Notes due June 30, 2029.

Pursuant to CPLR § 5222(b), as set forth below, you are forbidden to make or permit any sale, assignment, or transfer of, or interference with, or pay over or otherwise dispose of any debt or obligation owed by you to the Judgment Debtor, or any property in which the Judgment Debtor has or may have an interest that may be in your custody or possession to any person other than the sheriff except upon direction of the sheriff or marshal pursuant to an order of the Court, until the Judgment is satisfied or vacated, except as provided in CPLR § 5222(b). Such property of the Judgment Debtor may include any real, personal, tangible, or intangible property in which the Judgment Debtor has any interest, whether inchoate or matured.

This notice also covers all such property in which the Judgment Debtor has an interest that comes into your possession or custody, and any or all debts hereafter coming due from you to the Judgment Debtor after the date of this notice.

Disobedience of this restraining notice is punishable as a contempt of court.

CPLR § 5222(b) provides as follows:

Effect of restraint; prohibition of transfer; duration. A judgment debtor or obligor served with a restraining notice is forbidden to make or suffer any sale, assignment, transfer or interference with any property in which he or she has an interest, except as set forth in subdivisions (h) and (i) of this section, and except upon direction of the sheriff or pursuant to an order of the court, until the judgment or order is satisfied or vacated. A restraining notice served upon a person other than the judgment debtor or obligor is effective only if, at the time of service, he or she owes a debt to the judgment debtor or obligor or he or she is in the possession or custody of property in which he or she knows or has reason to believe the judgment debtor or obligor has an interest, or if the judgment creditor or support collection unit has stated in the notice that a specified debt is owed by the person served to the judgment debtor or obligor or that the judgment debtor or obligor has an interest in specified property in the possession or custody of the person served. All property in which the judgment debtor or obligor is known or believed to have an interest then in and thereafter coming into the possession or custody of such a person, including any specified in the notice, and all debts of such a person, including any specified in the notice, then due and thereafter coming due to the judgment debtor or obligor, shall be subject to the notice except as set forth in subdivisions (h) and (i) of this section. Such a person is forbidden to make or suffer any sale, assignment or transfer of, or any interference with, any such property, or pay over or otherwise dispose of any such debt, to any person other than the sheriff or the support collection unit, except as set forth in subdivisions (h) and (i) of this section, and except upon direction of the sheriff or pursuant to an order of the court, until the expiration of one year after the notice is served upon him or her, or until the judgment or order is satisfied or vacated, whichever event first occurs. A judgment creditor or support collection unit which has specified personal property or debt in a restraining notice shall be liable to the owner of the property or the person to whom the debt is owed, if other than the judgment debtor or obligor, for any damages sustained by reason of the restraint. If a garnishee served with a restraining notice withholds the payment of money belonging or owed to the judgment debtor or obligor in an amount equal to twice the amount due on the judgment or order, the restraining notice is not effective as to other property or money.
